Rhodes island, Greece

9-13 MAY 2018

Date: 9-13 May 2018

Place: Greece / Rhodes Island

- The island of God Sun and God Apollo, the island of Colossus and the knights, and island with centuries of history, a crossway between nations and civilizations, the homeland of many Olympic champions and philosophers, the emerald isle of unparalleled natural beauty, superb light and unique hospitality, a luxurious place for vacations offering you whatever you wish....
- The island of Rhodes is situated in the South Aegean Sea. It is the largest island in the Dodecanese and the fourth in Greece after Crete, Evia and Lesbos (Lesbos). It has a long history, a rich natural environment, beautiful beaches and modern tourist facilities, elements that have for decades made it a one of the most popular tourist destinations both nationally and worldwide.

- The island of Rhodes is oblong and has the shape of a spear edge. Located about 460 kilometers southeast of Athens, 380 km west of Cyprus and 18 km southwest of Turkey. Its length is 77 km, width 37 km and total area of 1,401 square kilometers (1,408,749 acres). It has 253 kilometers of coastline. The island can be described as mountainous with the highest mountains the Atavyros (1210 meters), the Artamyti (825 meters) and the Prophet Ilias (800 meters).
- The island can be reached both by air or sea.
- Rhodes has an International Airport, “Diagoras”, located in Paradisi, 14 km from Rhodes town .
- The port of Rhodes fulfills all the specifications to function as a cruise “home port”, thus making the island of Rhodes an entry or exit point for cruises in the Mediterranean
- The inhabitants of Rhodes speak except from the Greek language mostly English, and many of them know other languages like German, French , Italian, Spanish, Russian and others.
- The official currency is the euro.
- The weather on the island is clear and sunny all year round.
